STUDENT PILOTS TO COMPLETE TRAINING

OFFICERS LECTURE, DEMONSTRATE -- Sarajevo, Oslobođenje, 20 Jul 51

In May 1951 at a meeting of a unit under the command of Lt Col Petar Solomun, it was established that the unit officers and noncommissioned officers had slackened their work with front organizations. The reason given was that a considerable number of officers had just graduated from schools and academies and had not immediately joined front organizations, according to the custom of this unit. Following the meeting, a conference was held with all officers. Later, at meetings of basic party organizations, work with the People's Front organizations and the Savez Boraca (Association of Fighters [Veterans?]) was discussed.

A few days after these meetings all officers and noncommissioned officers joined the front organizations where they live and began cooperating with them.

In the 2 months following, the unit gave 40 different lectures to People's Front organizations and the Association of Fighters. Especially active were Capt Vlado Jagodic, who gave seven lectures, and Capt Slavko Corluca, who gave two demonstrations with the help of his unit and the People's Front organization. Captain Corluca was selected as delegate to the city conference of the People's Front.

1st Lt Rudolf Mrkic gave 14 lectures to the PAZ (antiaircraft defense). Zastavnik Dragan Milinkovic has given nine lectures in the past 2 months.
